Annsley Klehr – Interim Director of Education

Are you an innovative and dynamic educator, excited to inspire and engage children on their Jewish journeys? Are you passionate about building meaningful relationships with students and families, and committed to creating an inclusive and joyful learning environment?

We are seeking exceptional teachers to join our team at Keshet, Ahavath Achim's supplementary education program for students three years old through sixth grade. As a Keshet teacher, you will have the opportunity to design and implement a project-based curriculum (for seasoned educators or those interested) and/or the opportunity to bring curriculum to life in a way that sparks curiosity, creativity, and exploration.

At Keshet, we believe that Jewish education should be dynamic and relevant, rooted in Jewish values and traditions, and accessible to all. Our program is designed to nurture compassionate and curious Jewish learners, who draw connections between themselves and Jewish values and rituals, with each other, with their community, and with their environment. Through hands on experiences, students learn to question, problem solve, and build a more just world. As a Keshet teacher, you will have the opportunity to cultivate relationships with families and students, and as interested, create innovative lessons that inspire and connect.

Qualifications:

- A positive attitude and a love of working with children
- Flexibility, teamwork, and an ability to work in a collaborative environment
- An understanding of classroom management skills and ability to maintain a safe and fun learning environment
- Basic knowledge of or desire to learn more about Jewish culture, holidays, and ritual
- Strong references

Keshet meets in-person on Sunday mornings, from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm, with a teacher meeting at 8:30am. Competitive hourly pay begins at $30/hour.

If you are a creative and passionate educator seeking to make a difference in the lives of children and families, we invite you to apply for this exciting opportunity to join our team at Keshet at Ahavath Achim. Please email Annsley Klehr at anzoid@yahoo.com with your resume and application (below).
